BOND ANTICIPATION NOTES – 2024

(the “Notes”)

Introduction

The Preliminary Official Statement for the Notes is dated October 31, 2024 (the “Preliminary Official Statement”). The Bay Shore Union Free School District, Suffolk County, New York (the “District”) has prepared this Supplement dated November 6, 2024, to the Official Statement (the “Supplement”) to revise the Preliminary Official Statement to include an update to the “Litigation” and “Anticipated Future Borrowings” sections regarding recent developments with respect to a Child Victim’s Act claim against the District and to adjust the closing date to November 14, 2024 from November 18, 2024. Accompanying the Supplement is a Revised Notice of Sale, dated November 6, 2024, to reflect the change in the new closing date.

Other than with respect to the information provided herein, this Supplement is not otherwise updating the Preliminary Official Statement, which speaks as of its date. Capitalized terms used herein and not otherwise defined have the meanings given to such terms in the Preliminary Official Statement.

The section entitled “LITIGATION” on page 8 is hereby replaced and superseded with the following:

LITIGATION

In common with other school districts, the District from time to time receives notices of claim and is a party to litigation. In the opinion counsel for the District, unless otherwise set forth herein and apart from matters provided for by applicable insurance coverage, there are no significant claims or actions pending in which the District has not asserted a substantial and adequate defense, nor which, if determined against the District, would have an adverse material effect on the financial condition of the District, in view of the District’s ability to fund the same through use of appropriate funding mechanisms provided by the Local Finance Law.

Child Victim’s Act Claims – 42 lawsuits remain pending against the District under the Child Victim’s Act and all involve one former elementary school teacher. A separate, additional lawsuit filed against the District involves a former scout leader of the Boy Scouts of America. Of the 42 lawsuits pending, five (5) lawsuits have been settled with approval of the Board of Education and will be financed with the proceeds of the Notes by the District. It should be noted that another three (3) lawsuits have been settled by the District’s insurance reciprocal, NYSIR. Another three (3) lawsuits, fully insured by NYSIR, are still pending.

As stated above, the Plaintiffs in each lawsuit allege multiple instances of sexual abuse by the former elementary school teacher. While the District continues to explore whether there is insurance coverage from its prior carriers for each lawsuit, at this time, there are 14 completely uninsured lawsuits pending. It should also be noted that another 20 lawsuits may have varying levels of insurance coverage which the District continues to proactively pursue.

On October 21, 2024, the uninsured case of P.L. v. Bay Shore Union Free School District went to trial within Supreme Court, Suffolk County. On October 31, 2024, a jury verdict found that the District was 100% liable for sexual abuse alleged to have been committed by a former elementary school teacher, during the 1990-1991 school year. Specifically, the District was found liable for negligence in supervision, and in acting with reckless disregard for keeping the former elementary school teacher employed notwithstanding multiple allegations of having sexually abused other students within his professional charge. The damages phase of the jury trial thereafter commenced and concluded on Friday, November 1, 2024. The jury awarded damages to P.L. in the total amount of $25,000,000. Specifically, $7,000,000 were awarded for future pain and suffering, while another $18,000,000 were awarded for past pain and suffering. It is expected that the District will immediately file a motion to set aside both the liability and damages verdicts with the trial court while simultaneously filing a notice of appeal with the Appellate Division, Second Department. The District cannot predict the outcomes of either the motion to set aside the verdicts or of the appeal. Any final judgment in this matter would be funded either through General Fund appropriations, the District's Insurance Reserve Fund, budgetary appropriations or through the issuance of bonds

The next five (5) lawsuits, which are uninsured, are scheduled to proceed to jury selection and trial within Supreme Court, Suffolk County on December 2, 2024, January 27, 2025, February 10, 2025, March 10, 2025, and on March 31, 2025.

Should the Plaintiffs in any of the pending lawsuits be successful in their claims against the District, any liability in excess of insurance coverage that may be available will be a District charge and would be funded either through General Fund appropriations, the District's Insurance Reserve Fund, budgetary appropriations or through the issuance of bonds. (See "Anticipated Future Borrowings" herein).

The section entitled "Anticipated Future Borrowings" on page A-13 is hereby replaced and superseded with the following:

Anticipated Future Borrowings

The District expects to pursue additional financings in the future once all claims against the District are settled or otherwise resolved. At such time, the District may convert the Notes into bonds in the summer of 2025. (see "Litigation" herein).

PRELIMINARY OFFICIAL STATEMENT DATED OCTOBER 31, 2024

NEW ISSUE
BOND ANTICIPATION NOTES

See “RATING” herein.

In the opinion of Hawkins Delafield & Wood LLP, Bond Counsel to the District, under existing statutes and court decisions and assuming continuing compliance with certain tax certifications described herein, (i) interest on the Notes is excluded from gross income for federal income tax purposes pursuant to Section 103 of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended (the “Code”), and (ii) interest on the Notes is not treated as a preference item in calculating the alternative minimum tax under the Code, however, interest on the Notes is included in the “adjusted financial statement income” of certain corporations that are subject to the alternative minimum tax under Section 55 of the Code. In addition, in the opinion of Bond Counsel to the District, under existing statutes, interest on the Notes is exempt from personal income taxes of New York State and its political subdivisions, including The City of New York. (See “Tax Matters” herein).

The District will NOT designate the Notes as “qualified tax-exempt obligations” pursuant to Section 265(b)(3) of the Code.
